SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1848.

☞ The business prospects of our country are under the cloud. There is the greatest diversity among those who profess skill in seeing into the future, and not only so, but as to the existing state of business and money, except indeed that it is hard raising money in the usual money circles. Some say that the worst of the financial troubles are over, while others see no prospects of any relief. Bank and factory stocks are hard of sale at any thing like fair prices. Cotton and woolen goods are low and there is no prospects at present of any profit being realized out of the manufacture of these goods, although raw material can be had at favorable rates

Foreign manufactures and foreign luxuries and gew-gaws of all sorts are coming in to the country abundantly and tempting our people to buy and consume. The temptation will be continued until at length all that remains will be thrown upon the market by auction and the sales forced at all hazards

Distressing Shipwreck.

Ship Erromonga, at Greenock, from New York, reports —"Feb. 22, lat 40 30 N lon 47 15 W, fell in with wreck of ener Samuel Noyes, of Castine, (for Cuba,) with only the master, Mr Hatch, on board, the rest of the crew having died previously Took the master on board in a very exhausted state, he having been nine days without drink and almost without food. The Samuel Noyes had broached to, on the 13th, in a gale, and hove on her beam ends, where she lay for two hours, when her masts gave way and she righted Five of those on board the first night, and one on the 18th—ex John Perkins, passenger; Osborne Wardrill, mate; Charles Gray, cook; Charles Cornwallis, steward; Otis Howard and James Snowman, seamen. Mr Hatch has nearly recovered the suffering much from his hands and feet The schr. was again met on the 13th, lat 39 35, lon 54 36.

☞ The following extract from a letter written by Capt John Short, Jr. directed to his father in this city touching the above Ship wreck, will be read with interest —

On the 24 h of February, Lat 39 North, Long 64—10° West, we fell in with the wreck of the Schr Samuel Noyes of Castine, both masts gone, main hatches off, and full of water On our arrival at Greenock we reported her, the next day the English Barque Erromanga arrived from New York at Greenock with Capt James Hatch on board, the only survivor of the Samuel Noyes They took Capt Hatch off the day previous to that of our seeing the wreck. As soon as I heard that Capt Hatch was on board the Erromanga I immediately went on board to see him, and a most horrid state he was in His feet had been frost bitten while on the wreck, and are now in a bad state of mortification, his fingers on both hands are in much the same state. He was taken to the Infirmary yesterday and I have not heard from him since. Both of his feet will have to be taken off above the ancles, and some of his fingers. Capt Hatch told me that the schr was hove down on her beam ends the 2nd day out while scudding under a close reef fore sail, and remained in that position until they cut away her masts, when she righted There was no one lost at the time, but all died from fatigue.

She was about six hours on her beam ends, and John Perkins a passenger was the first that expired, he lived only about four hours after the vessel righted, all the rest died in about 24 hours except Snowman the boy he lived four days Capt Hatch was nine days on the wreck five days without a drop of fresh water. The only food he had was one chicken and a small peice of raw pork. Capt Hatch will be operated upon to-morrow, and as our letters by the steamer will have to be mailed to-morrow I shall not have an opportunity to inform you by this steamer how he bears the operation.

By the next steamer I will inform you of the particulars It is generally supposed he will stand the operation well as his bodily health is good.

☞ The navigation of our river is unobstructed. The river boat Tarratine has commenced her Jobes and brought up some vessels. The noble steamer Admiral, Capt Rogers arrived here on Friday morning from St. John N B for Boston, with a large number of emigrant passengers We are indebted to the prompt and polite attentions of Capt C Spear clerk of the Admiral for a good bundle of eastern papers, for which he will please accept our thanks.

Paris Delegation to the National Assembly.

A Albert who signs himself "Operative," has given in the French paper Atelier, a list of thirty-four deputies, who, he thinks, ought to be returned from the city of Paris to the National Assembly. It consists of the Provisional Government (11), 5 Socialists and 18 workmen.

☞ We learn that the Unitarian Society will after tomorrow, close their church for several weeks, for the purpose of making repairs.

☞ We regret the necessity we are under of dividing our report of Dr Pomroy's Fast Day Discourse

Value of a Dollar.

If you would learn the value of a dollar, go and labor two days in the burning sun and hard-ship. This is an excellent idea, and if many of our young gentlemen had to earn their dollars in that way, how much less dissipation and crime would we witness every day! The air of our fashionable young ladies, if they, like some of the poor seamstresses of our large cities, had to earn them as they do by making shirts at ten cents a piece, how much less fiery would we see about them, and how much more truthful notions would they have to their duties of life and their obligations to the rest of the world!

☞ Thanks to Hodgman & Co's Express for papers received last evening in advance of the mail.

The Sins of Bangor.

We announced in our paper of Wednesday last, that Rev Dr. Pomroy proposed on Fast to Day, to discourse upon the Sins of Bangor, and intimated that we might furnish our readers with a sketch of his remarks.

On Fast Day there was a great throng at the First Parish Church. Every part of the house and all the extra seats which could be brought in were filled, showing that upon the necessity of a reform being commenced in our city, the public mind is much awakened

The religious services of the sanctuary were of a highly interesting character and the discourse was one of great plainness and force—Our space will not admit of a full report, and we must therefore give a general sketch, showing the several heads of the discourse, but omitting much of the illustration, and of the imagery in which it appeared.

The Rev. Dr announced his text—

Ezra 9th Chapter, 15th verse,

"Behold thou find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city"

He said that his Excellency, the Governor of the State of Maine, has recommended, in his proclamation, that we "call home our thoughts, from their anxious wanderings after the errors of others and turn them within, upon the dark, unexplored recesses of our own hearts." This is very well. Self examination and individual humiliation, are undoubtedly quite proper, needful, indispensable The idea however, of a day of public humiliation, fasting and prayer, seems of necessity, to involve the contemplation of public, or municipal, national sins, for which the community the State, the nation, should humble themselves together Accordingly it has been thought proper, and the prevalent custom has been to bring to view, on these occasions, the sins and evils which exist in the nation and the world, and suggest some things which might have a tendency to remove them.

He had, he said, at different times, adverted to our national sins, and to the deplorable condition of this world of ours; and pointed out many reasons why we should humble ourselves as individuals, and as a community On the present occasion, though he might not strictly comply the Governor's recommendation, yet he would come as near home as to speak of our municipal sins—the sins of Bangor

By these he did not mean the sins which are peculiar to this city, for he supposed that about all the sins which exist here, are found also in other cities It is true our own sins may be more aggravated than those of some others, while, perhaps, there are others in the land, certainly in the world, much more wicked than this Nor should it, for a moment, be supposed that he overlooked or was ignorant of, the many virtues and excellences of character that exist among us There are some good things in Bangor, and some bad things At present the bad is to do with the latter If search be made, it will be found in the book of the records, "that this city is a rebellious city." Viewed in the light of the Bible, our sins are in fact very many and very great. Among these may be mentioned —

1 The Sin of Lying —This is one of the earliest developments of human depravity All children are tempted to commit this sin—and the propensity to do it is very strong Too many parents encourage it in children in this by their own example So "they go astray, speaking lies" They deceive their children—lie to them to make them obedient, but children at length find out the deception The effect upon the character of children is exceedingly pernicious They lie to their parents—to each other—to their school fellows—to their teachers—As they grow up, they commit this sin in the streets, on the wharves, behind the counter, in the counting room; when they buy and when they sell The sin is perpetrated in one form or another, in every house in the city, almost every day in the year. He would not affirm of every body—but it is so common, so universal, that but little is thought of it.

2 The Sin of Profaneness.—Among the Jewish people, the blasphemer was to be stoned to death The sin of profaneness, Dr Pomroy thought, had greatly increased within a few years, especially among the youth At the doors of our school houses—at the corners of the streets—on the wharves—in the places of business—almost everywhere—your ears are assailed with oaths, curses, blasphemies, terrible imprecations Strange to say, some parents are found who not only tolerate this, but actually abuse themselves with the oaths and curses of their little ones The city is full of blasphemy What is to become of the rising generation if they go on in this way?

3 The Sin of Sabbath-breaking True, ours is not the Jewish, but the christian Sabbath—the Lord's Day—but none the less important, none the less sacred for that It is, after all, essentially the Sabbath of the Fourth Commandment

Touching the moral welfare of the community, it is vital, fundamental. If you cannot arrest the attention and bring men, on that day under the instructions, restraints and moral influences of revealed Religion, nothing like morality can be maintained. Now every body knows that the Sabbath is grossly violated in this city, in more ways than can now be enumerated—some in idleness and sloth, some in business, more in the pursuit of pleasures—Men, women and children, are in the sin. The neighboring towns are disturbed, on that day, by reckless and riotous young men and others, who go forth from the city. Pleasure parties, rude boys in the streets and fields—many visit the Post Office, and in various ways which can now only be pointed at, profane the Sabbath The traveller in the old country is forcibly struck with the almost entire absence, of the Sabbath, and there, bells and bars abound, and to cross trusts his neighbor out of his sight. He is an enemy to his country, who does not sustain the Sabbath for its moral influence upon society.

4. The Sin of Fraudulent dealing.—It is thought by some that Bangor is peculiarly addicted to this sin. I say he sd. Dr P. said he would neither affirm nor deny. But he thought covetousness the great sin of this country and age—the prolific mother of lying, profaneness, Sabbath-breaking, fraud, oppression, and a host of other sins. Fraudulent dealing is a sin to which a community like ours is liable The temptations to fraud are great, the facilities for it numerous, and there is, unquestionably, a vast amount of it upon this way. It is perpetrated in borrowing and lending, in buying and selling, in letting and hiring, in buying and selling, in letting and hiring, in failures, in making promises that never can be fulfilled—in taking unwarrantable advantages—in extravagant living, while creditors are unpaid, and the poor oppressed, and thousand other ways which he did not name. Probably knew much more about than he did His was a sin to be called in an honest, for men after getting into the habit of fraudulent dealing, cease to think it necessary, and that a man is a fool to undertake getting along in business without resorting to it.

5 The sin of Gambling.—This also when it has once enwrapt a man in its folds is perfectly demoniacal It engulfs him in a fathomless vortex of depravity—burns out his conscience and makes him a monster too horrible to be described in human language. There is gambling in Bangor, not a little. Some heads of families are involved in it. Many young men, and even lads are dipping into it, and are borne along on the fatal current with fearful rapidity. Gambling with cards is practised in numerous private rooms, in grog shops, even by boys, and in more genteel drinkeries. There is at least one billiard table and another is said to be in process of preparation. There are four buildings devoted to bowling alleys, with three or four alleys in each—another is being erected.—These are thronged by men, young men, and boys for purposes of gambling There is profane swearing; and lying and cheating and drinking and sometimes fighting If you wish your son to go to perdition, send him or suffer him to frequent these bowling establishments

6. The Sin of Intemperance.—There are somewhere from fifty to one hundred places in this city where intoxicating liquors are sold—and this without authority and in defiance of law. At one point on the West side of the stream, you may stand and count from twelve to fifteen such places, within a stone's cast—Some of them pouring out barrels and hogsheads, and others gallons, quarts, pints, gills and glasses, at a time Some individuals have two establishments of the same kind in different places. Then, we have taverns and hotels in sufficient numbers, where every body can be accommodated Then, there are ladies and gentlemen who drink, and give others to drink, what they call wine, and some other things—Old men and old ladies young men and young ladies, drink intoxicating drinks at social parties, weddings, balls, collations and such like, some openly, others covertly.

The consequence is that the tide of intemperance is setting in upon us—the drunkard is returning to our streets Young men in some instances lie drunk at the bowling alleys all night—drunken rows and riots are becoming frequent Your sons are enticed and many of them probably, are already on the highway to ruin, and you know it not. Companies of boys are found in grog shops, late at night, playing cards for money, and then sallying forth to commit depredations We may sleep—iniquity does not sleep. Rumhogs are permitted to go on at this rate, sober people, who wish to save their sons from destruction will have to move out of the city. Indeed, Dr P. remarked, that if he had a family of boys, he should even now be debating the question whether he ought not to leave the city for their sakes.

He had not time to speak at present of the sin of inattentiveness. It was a sin of no small magnitude. There were surprising and startling facts upon this subject which he could mention, but he would pass over this subject.

Having thus glanced at some of the sins of Bangor, he would turn to the question, What is to be done? for certainly, he said, it will be conceded, on all hands, that they who seek the welfare of the city are bound to do something to stay the progress of vice among us. He, would therefore look at several classes of persons and briefly enquire what they ought to do.

To be Concluded.

For the Whig and Courier

MR. EDITOR—

Shall I be permitted through the medium of your paper to call the attention of the City Marshal, and of all the Friends of Temperance to Central Street. I do not invite their attention in the expectation that they will find there any thing very pleasing, but if it affords them any pleasure to find the sources of those great evils, which they profess to be desirous of removing, they will not be wholly without gratification.

From the Scriptural fact that "where the carcase is, there will the Eagles be gathered together," we infer with no uncertainty, that the carcase is on Central Street There, may not unfrequently be witnessed the boisterous uproar, profanity and broils, which are disgusting and painful to every right minded man, and which bring disgrace upon the City

It is not long since you or a correspondent of yours invited attention to this same Central St. I do not know who it was, but being unfortunately located in that vicinity, I know only that it is growing worse and worse, and if you will once more invite the attention of whom it concerns especially the Landlords to the subject, it will probably do no harm, and possibly may do some good, and Mr. Editor I send you this communication cheerfully for if currently reported to fall back half a century in the Temperance cause, I am well satisfied it will not be because you in your professional career are not willing and desirous to do all you can to avert such a catastrophe.

Melancholy Accident.

Bela L., son of I R Chadbourne, Esq. of this town, aged about 13 years, was killed on Friday afternoon last by the accidental discharge of a gun. He was sitting at the door of his father's shed engaged in rigging a little boat, when the gun which was in an upright position a few feet behind him, fell with the muzzle towards him, and the contents of the gun, which was loaded with shot, entered his spine, and passed nearly through him, so that he survived but a few moments Thus within a few months have the afflicted parents been deprived of two sons, one by a ball on the battle field, and the last to endicate the near approach of death. Truly the ways of Providence are mysterious and inscrutable, and even when we feel most secure, death treads on our very heels Bela was an intelligent, pleasant lad, and beloved he will be much by extensive acquaintances Although this death was announced by a pass accident, we would add our voice of warning to all those who have any thing to do with instruments which may in an instant send a human being to eternity.

BY THE LAST MAIL.

New York Choice Elections.

The Whigs have elected their Mayor by a majority of about one thousand

The following is the result in the City Council:—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Board of Aldermen | 10 | Whigs |
| | 6 | Regular Locos |
| | 2 | Independent Dem. |
| Board of Assistants | 9 | Whigs |
| | 7 | Regular Locos |
| | 2 | Independent Dem. |
| Total in both boards | 19 | Whigs |
| | 13 | Regular Locos |
| | 4 | Independent Dem. |

This leaves the patronage of the government now enjoyed by the Whigs still in their possession and this barrenness of the country to them makes them safe, in addition to which is the grievance in some four quarters that the Loco Mayor is a Walnut Pronso man.

☞ Albany Brooklyn and New Orleans charter elections have resulted in the proof that their cities are Whig all over about ten feet thick!

☞ We have received a slip from the office of the Salem Daily Chronicle announcing the destruction of the Rubber Factory in South Salem on the 11th inst. Loss $12,000. Insured for $7,500.

The same slip gives an account of the burning at Beverly Farms of the splendid summer residence of Franklin Haven Esq. of Boston.

BUFFALO, Tuesday, April 11

Death of a Catholic Bishop—The Catholic Bishop, Rt Rev. William Quarter, died at Chicago.

☞ The State Circuit Court, at Lexington, Ky, have rendered a verdict of $2500 in favor of Cassius M Clay, against some of the parties who took down and sent off his printing press in 1845.

☞ Lieut Edward McPherson was killed in a duel at Mier, N Y on the 12th inst. Four shots were exchanged, and McPherson was wounded three times.

Chloroform Toothache Drops.

It is well known that "CHLOROFORM" has superceded (in a great measure) the use of Ether, as an allayer of pain, and is now used by the best Surgeons and Dentists in preference A celebrated Chemist (and one of the first manufacturers of Chloroform,) has discovered that "Chloroform" with other simple ingredients, will immediately cure the TOOTHACHE. After trying it in many cases it has never failed to give relief, there is no possible danger in using it, as it will not injure the nerve with a puncture All that is necessary in using these Drops, is to saturate well a bit of cotton or lint, and place it in the cavity of the tooth. Relief will be soon realized. None genuine without the signature of Ross & Pain on the wrapper. Sold at No. 19 Tremont Row, Boston.

Permanent Cure of Dyspepsia and habitual Costiveness.

To Dr Relph,

DEAR SIR—I have, myself, almost no occasion for your sustainable Pills. I have used them many an years, as occasion dictated; and I have reason to suppose they have wrought a thorough and permanent change in respect to the functions of the stomach. From habitual costiveness, and the vexing of nauseous and slimy stools, I am completely relieved. The multifarious symptoms of Dyspepsia, with which I was once [illegible] well acquainted, have so entirely passed away, that I hardly know when they were. Any use you can make of this or a more full development of my case, is at your service.

Except in an obstetric case, your book (Family Physician) and Pills have been the only physicians to my house for six years.

There are many of my friends around, and more and more, who call for your Pills as a family standard, and for chronic cases.

Yours truly,
Horatio Waite.

WERE RETAILED in Boston by Gardner Chilson in the shortage of six months, and a large number have been sold by myself in this city. This Stove is not equalled by any other stove in the United States, and the unparalleled sales it has met with fully bespeak its unsurpassed merits.

HOUSE-KEEPERS should be sure and examine this super or Stove, which has won the admiration of several thousand House Keepers the past season. It has quite recent and useful improvements that all others condemned. The fire-brick Oven replaces the iron plate, which is proved to be a great value in absorbing the steam and causing the bread to rise and bake light equal to the brick oven. The brick in fact is far more durable than the iron top. It also equalizes the heat up and the over, and a much more fresh bake is produced in this stove than any other stove known. It bakes in a perfect manner, so for roasting, broiling, toasting, &c it is unsurpassed for bringing, boiling, toasting, &c. in fact all. The grate clear itself of clinkerings the ashes into the ash pit. The flues are large, and arranged as not to fill up with ashes. It is surprising to see how small an amount of fuel it requires to give forth so great a variety of cooking. In short upon all and every principle of construction, and general good qualities, it is set forth to be

From Cortlandt Skinner, Esq Attorney at Law, and Notary Public Philadelphia

"From personal acquaintance with Jules Hauel—as experienced and fashionable Perfumer and Chemist—I was prepared to appreciate the impressive testimonials in favor of his different fashionable preparations. On trial of them in my own family, and some of them personally, I do positively declare that they are what they profess to be, excellently prepared and compounded. I am convinced of the great worth or merit of the Eau Lustral Hair Restorative Shaving Cream, Nymph Soap and Rose Tooth Paste—I am fully satisfied of their favorable worth, and do heartily recommend them to all for the use and purposes they are intended. Nothing can equal the beauty and lustre imparted to the hair by the use of the Eau Lustral Hair Restorative. It invigorates the hair and promotes its growth. The Shaving Cream is unsurpassed and decidedly excellent, being a fine and slight scent; [illegible] does not smart or irritate the skin, while the Nymph Soap preserves beautifully upon the person of the skin, and cleanses it from all impurities. The Rose Tooth Paste imparts to the teeth a pearly whiteness, and is well calculated to preserve the teeth and gums from decay. They are in their way invaluable.

"I have seen some of my friends who have used your Vegetable Liquid Hair Dye; the effect is really wonderful. I dyed the Hair in an infinite manner in a few minutes, and the color of the hair is really beautiful, and most will admire the artificial hair, for it is an original. Yours &c. DANIEL F. BENNETT,

TO THE AFFLICTED

DR DOUGLASS respectfully informs the citizens of Bangor that he may be consulted on all diseases incident to the human frame, at his office

No. 36 Union Street.

Dr D has been in extensive practice in all parts of the United States, and has now in his possession the best of evidence to show that he is a regular M D. He has been upwards of 20 years in practice. Those afflicted females will receive the Dr's particular attention. He will tell all the diseases upon an examination of the eye. This is an advantage that Dr D has above all other practitioners, and it will necessarily do away the necessity of a long and unpleasant explanation on the part of the patient, of the disease with which they are afflicted. The age and length of time the patient has been suffering, in all the Dr will require to give, then a most thorough knowledge of their complaint and whether or not a cure can be effected.

Dr D has been very successful in the treatment of Colds, Coughs, Consumptions and Lung Complaints, all Pulmonary diseases, Scrofula Rheumatism Fits, Dysentary, all diseases of the Eye and Ear, diseases of the Blood Pal, tation of the Heart, Sore and Rheumatic Sores, cutaneous diseases and all affections of the kidneys and bladder, Pain in the Side, Female Abnormal Weakness, Tooth ache, Intemperance, Stammering. Dr D warrants a cure of any of the above diseases, if applied to in season.

He would also respectfully inform the ladies that he will attend to their diseases and complaints from 7 to 12 AM and from 2 to 9 PM. A full and general assortment of medicines are kept constantly on hand. Printed directions accompany each bottle or package.

DISEASES OF THE Throat and Lungs.

COLDS and Coughs, the frightful parents of Consumption, Bronchitis, Pleurisy and kindred other diseases are often neglected until the foundation of the Spring Complaint is laid deep in the system. A Physician is then called in, who administers a few Pill & Syrup, but declares the disease incurable, and the Patient in confirmation of his opinion, dies. But why is this? Simply because he does not resort to the proper remedy, but trusts the case to a druggist & Practitioner rather than the unfailing remedy of experience and the most unbiased testimony. CITY OF NEW YORK, July 21st 1847.

This is to Certify that I, Nelson Larrabee, of Jersey City, have been subject to a distressing cough and pain in the side and chest, attended with night sweats and general weakness of the system for 20 years, and finally was pronounced INCURABLE CONSUMPTIVE, under the advice of regular physicians when the many advertised remedies I have taken in the form of nyre moment benefit, but I very soon got worse, I purchased a bottle of Dr YONDERSMITH'S INDIAN COUGH BALM AND LUNG BALSAM, by the use of which, all my symptoms have been removed, & I have been wonderfully restored to the blessings of health, in the space of a prolonged existence. In gratitude for which and in the hope of benefiting others, I solemnly certify to the facts in this certificate

INFLAMMATION OF THE LUNGS.

NEW YORK June 10 1847

DR YONDERSMITH—I have been subject to a cough, pain in the chest, difficulty of breath &c, for many years past. About four months ago I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs. I was unable to attend to my business until the day I had the spitting of blood. I thought I could not possibly survive long. I could get relief. The excessive night sweats and weakness of the system, in fact, should I give the full particulars of my case, it would be almost incredible. I was recommended to try Dr YONDERSMITH'S INDIAN COUGH BALM AND LUNG BALSAM. I spoken of what I had said about a quack, my case is a serious consideration, which gave me great hope. I continued with the medicine according to your directions and to result have been that I am restored to health & strength. I have not enjoyed for years as I do at present time. Sincerely I feel I have had a narrow escape from the [illegible] that I would be consigning to the silent grave. Therefore I believe that I am doing nothing but justice, in stating the above facts, so that you may give it to all the afflicted who may call upon you to administer to them. I shall be pleased at any time to converse with the afflicted who may call upon me.

Your grateful patient and friend

CONSUMPTION.

STATEN ISLAND, June 10th, 1847

DEAR SIR—I take great pleasure in giving you my certificate, that December I was attacked with a severe cough, pain in my left side, loss of appetite, and cutting of nothing I ate or drank, but what I threw up. Soon days I raised a half pint of mucous, streaked with blood. I then began to fear the treatment of a dozen physicians, who recommended by Dr Mc of Philadelphia, to use a something like Tar cherry-pops. I only took one of his cough mixt, it was the cause of bringing on hemorrhage of the lungs, which reduced me so much that I was unable to get up my voice was entirely destroyed, it was difficult for persons to understand me. I saw Dr Yondersmith's Medicine recommended very among by a person whom he had cured, I sent for half a dozen bottles, I received great benefit from that, which induced me to purchase a dozen bottles. I took according to the directions, and it cured me perfectly

Yours, &c ROBERT WALLSEY.

DR. CUMMINGS'S
Compound Extract of Sarsaparill and Dock.

THE articles above named are the principal ingredients of this medicine. With them, other of vegetable origin are combined, designed to render them more active, and consequently more immediately effective.

The Dock or rather a species of it, now ranks as a medicinal plant second to no one of the vegetable kingdom. With the aid of a distinguished chemist, whom the proprietor has consulted in the preparation of the compound he has succeeded in overcoming the difficulty of preserving the extract of the root for any considerable length of time.

For many years the proprietor has tested in his practice the efficacy of the principal substances of the compound, and is perfectly satisfied that they possess all the properties which have been ascribed to them. Recently he conceived the idea of uniting them, which has resulted in the production of the compound. In this the ingredients are found to act in harmony and to lose none of the qualities which they separately possess.

A larger portion of Sarsaparilla is soluble than has generally been supposed. The extract most to be relied on, and least liable to decomposition is procured by subjecting the root to the action of the menstrua usually employed in extracting its virtues for a long time without heat or any other accelerating agent. None is permitted to be used in the compound, that has not been obtained by this process and that has been less than a year in preparation.

The Compound is recommended for Scrofula Erysipelas, Uterous affections Eruptions and Mercurial diseases. Also for the numerous maladies arising from sedentary employments occupations of a harassing and fatiguing nature extreme application, excesses o extremes of heat and cold, overtaxing the physical powers and other abuses of the constitution among which are Neuralgia, Piles, Affection of the Liver Bilious Complaints and Dyspepsia or Indigestion

In diseases of warm climates with which the proprietor became familiar in his practice in the West Indies, some years since, the compound will prove particularly efficacious, both as a remedy and a preventative

This medicine has been for some time in use in this city, where the proprietor has passed nearly half a century of his professional life. It was extensively prescribed by him while in practice, and it is believed to be in favor with his medical brethren in general, in whom he is known.
